

When you enter a contest, we will collect the child's first name and age be sent to us. We will email every child's parent with notification that his or her child has entered the contest. Any winners will be sent to the release form which requires a shipping address as well as a parent's permission.