

for the purpose of inducing enrollment in their course of instruction, respondents engage and for some time last past have engaged in the advertising of their course of instruction in newspapers of interstate circulation. In the further course and conduct of their business, respondents from their offices in the District of Columbia so-

1428

Initial Decision

tain Lieutenant and Sergeant Employees working in the office lished principle that Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act

