ORDER OF FINAL DEFAULT JUDGMENT, PERMANENT INJUNCTION AND OTHER EQUITABLE RELIEF AS TO DEFENDANT PRO CREDIT GROUP

THIS CAUSE comes before the Court for consideration of Plaintiff's Motion for Entry of Default Judgment and Order for Permanent Injunction and Other Equitable Relief as to Defendant Pro Credit Group, LLC. (Dkt. 214) Upon consideration of all relevant filings, case law, and being otherwise fully advised, the Court hereby GRANTS Plaintiff's motion.

Plaintiff, the Federal Trade Commission ("Commission" or "FTC"), filed its Complaint on March 19, 2012 for a permanent injunction and other equitable relief in this matter, pursuant to Sections 13(b) and 19 of the Federal Trade Commission Act ("FTC Act"), 15 U.S.C. §§ 53(b) and 57b, and the Telemarketing and Consumer Fraud and Abuse Prevention Act ("Telemarketing Act"), 15 U.S.C. § 6101 et seq. The Court granted leave to file and entered an Amended Complaint on November 14, 2012. (Dkt. 183) The FTC alleged that defendant Pro Credit Group, LLC, ("PCG"), along with several other corporations and individuals, violated Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), and the FTC's Telemarketing Sales Rule ("TSR"), 16 C.F.R. Part 310 (1995) (as amended), in connection with the alleged deceptive marketing of a service to lower consumers' credit card interest rates (the "LI service"), and violated Section 5(a) of the FTC Act in connection with processing payments from consumers that consumers did not owe and that consumers were coerced into paying through lies, threats and abusive phone calls from foreign call centers working with PCG and other defendants.

has not retained counsel and has not answered Plaintiff's Amended Complaint. Further, no response to the instant motion has been filed and the time for doing so has elapsed. The Court, having considered the FTC's Motion and evidence, finds that an order granting default judgment against PCG is appropriate.

processing activities and the marketing or sale of a service purporting to lower the interest rates on consumers' debts.

5. The FTC has the authority under Sections 13(b) and 19 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 53(b) and 57(b), to seek the relief it has requested.

6. Defendant was properly served with the Summons and Complaint on March 21, 2012. Defendant was properly served with the Amended Complaint on November 14, 2012.

7. Defendant has not been represented by counsel in this action since August 28, 2012. Defendant did not retain new counsel, despite this Court's Order that it do so.

8. Default was entered against Defendant PCG on December 18, 2012.

9. The factual allegations in the Commission's Amended Complaint are taken as true as against Defendant PCG.

10. As alleged in the Amended Complaint, Defendant PCG participated in a common enterprise to market or sell a service purporting to lower the interest rates on consumers' debts ("Interest Rate Reduction Scheme"). In addition to promising lower interest rates, as part of the Interest Rate Reduction Scheme, often claimed that they were law enforcement officers or lawyers or otherwise affiliated with law enforcement authorities. Callers threatened consumers with arrest or legal action if they failed to pay immediately and, in numerous instances, possessed consumers' personal information – such as Social Security Numbers or addresses – and used that information to convince consumers that they were legitimate debt collectors. Consumers paid the purported debts as instructed because they were afraid of the threatened repercussions.

15. PCG processed consumers' payments. PCG also fielded complaints from consumers and from the Better Business Bureau of Clearwater, Florida, about the callers' abusive practices and about the fact that consumers did not owe the money the callers sought. In August 2010, Defendant was contacted by a U.S. Secret Service agent conducting a criminal investigation stemming from consumer complaints spawned by the acts described above.

16. Despite knowledge of consumer complaints and the criminal investigation, PCG continued processing payments for the overseas callers without contracts or proof of the right to collect the debts.

17. Defendant PCG directly participated in the unfair practices of this Debt Collection Scheme.

18. As a result of the unfair and deceptive acts and practices set forth above in the Interest Rate Reduction Scheme and the Debt Collection Scheme, consumers have incurred injury of at least $25,283,238. Verified financial monetary judgment pursuant to this Order, such as a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

C. The facts alleged in the Amended Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the Commission pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and this Order will have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

D. Defendant's Taxpayer Identification Numbers (Employer Identification Numbers) may be used for collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order, in accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701.

E. All money paid to the Commission pursuant to this Order may be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its designee to be used for equitable relief, including consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. If a representative of the Commission decides that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or money remains after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining money for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendant's practices alleged in the Amended Complaint. Any money not used for such equitable relief is to be deposited to the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Defendant has no right to challenge any actions the Commission or its representatives may take pursuant to this Subsection.
