

[Printed for the use of the Federal Trade Commission]

Congressional Record

SEVENTY-FIFTH CONGRESS, THIRD SESSION

Private Monopolies

"In reducing competition they seemed to be on the way to

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD

just what it means: 'Every person who shall monopolize, or attempt to monopolize, or combine or conspire with any other person or persons to monopolize any part of the trade or commerce among the several States or with foreign countries shall be deemed forms of competition, the degree to which the telegraph, the railroad, and the steamship may be utilized in consolidating different and competing units into a more efficient and noncompeting unit, the proportion of a given trade or industry that a given individual