Joint Statement of Chair Lina M. Khan, Commissioner Rebecca Kelly Saughter, and CommissionerAlvaro M. Bedoya Coulter Motor Company, LLC Commission File No. 2223033

August 1 , 2024

Today, the Commission ad the State of Arizona have charge Coulter, adealership group, with unlawfully misrepresenting jozes to customers, unlawfully charging customers without consent, and unlawfully imposing higheorets on Latino customeths an on similarly situated non-Latio White customers.

The complaint charges that Coulter lured people o its dealerships by marketing inaccurately lowprices, which buyers would only discover—f at all—once they had expended time visiting the dealership and beginning the urchase process As alleged in the complaint, Coulteralso inflated costs by tacking on chargines add-onseven when customershad not consented to them—nd, in some cases, even when customershad expressly declined then the complaint alleges such as Coulter. The Federal Reserve has g saidthat a facially neutral policy that disproportionately excludes or burdens persons on a prohibited basis can violate ECOA. As the Federal Reserve's official staff commentary notes, ECOA and plementing regulation (Regulation B) may prohibit a practice that is "discriminatory in effect because it has a disproportionately negativCct on a prohibited basis, evn though the creditor has noCent to discriminate and the practice appears neutral on its face."
