If you found yourself standing next to someone in line who coughed nonstop over your shoulder — go ahead and spray your oral mucosa with a purified colloidal silver supplement

So now you know.

You can fight inflammation at home with:

Vitamin C, Vitamin B1, Serrapeptase and Curcumin

1. Vitamin C (buffered Vit C is best.) My favorite is Buffered Vitamin C by Integrative Therapeutics [sic].
2. Vitamin B1 (aka thiamine.) My favorite is Thiamine by Seeking Health.
3. Serrapeptase (enteric coated is best.) My favorite is Enteric Coated Serrapeptase by Source Naturals.
4. Turmeric (curcumin + bioperin is best!). My favorite is Curcumin 500 + Bioperin by Pure Encapsulations.

I have every single one of these supplements available to you in my online dispensary right here [link to <https://us.fullscript.com/welcome/IntuitionPhysician>], at a nice discount just because you are a reader of mine!”

It is unlawful under the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 41 et seq. to advertise that a product or service can prevent, treat, or cure human disease unless you possess competent and reliable scientific evidence, including, when appropriate, well-controlled human clinical studies, substantiating that the claims are true at the time they are made. For COVID-19, no such study is currently known to exist for the products identified above. Thus, any coronavirus-related prevention or treatment claims regarding such products are not supported by competent and reliable scientific evidence. You must immediately cease making all such claims.

You are also advised to review all other claims for your products and immediately cease making claims that are not supported by competent and reliable scientific evidence.

Within 48 hours, please send a message to Assistant Director Jim Elliott via electronic mail at jelliott@ftc.gov describing the specific actions you have taken to address the FTC’s concerns. If you have any questions regarding compliance with the FTC Act, please contact Reid Tepfer at rtepfer@ftc.gov.

Very truly yours,
